Unfinished Business

Health Care Workshop, Ed Jones briefly perused the evaluation sheets from the Health Care Workshop and found them to be very positive with indications that attendees would like to have the participants invited back for another session. ~~A thorough analysis of the evaluations will follow by email.~~

Azalea Path Tour, Mary Alice Bertram reported that the Azalea Path Day Trip will be Tuesday, April 23 with participants meeting at the Holiday Inn (formerly the Marriott) on Highway 41 North at 9:30 a.m. to carpool. (ool.rpo :JTJETe T facilities without paying full price. Ed will inquire about policy and procedures and hopefully negotiate a rate for spouses of retirees to use the fitness facilities.

Web Access, John Deem, with input from Cindy Brinker, has been researching Retirees organizations at other universities that have web space on their University web sites. Sara Harlan will work with the USI web master to add USI Retirees to the USI web site.

HR After discussion it was decided by consensus that a further effort needs to be made to have better communications between the retirees and the HR office so that retirees are better informed of their benefits.

Social Media Workshop The USI Retirees will sponsor a Social Media 2 hour workshop led by Ken Johnson, on Thursday, May 9, place to be determined when a computer lab is available. Various types of social media will be discussed and demonstrated with participants having the opportunity to practice what they have learned.
